Dear Dr. Busleigh,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st.

For several years, approximately three or four, Mr. C. Gordon Crouse of Shawville, Quebec, has done some research for me on this family of John Luskull. It was he who suggested that I write to you for any possible records concerning the Luskull family.

Mr. Crouse, as well as Mr. Roger Pickerson, Archivist in Toronto, have informed me that John Luskull does not appear on parts I or III of the 1851 Census for Belleville - and part II is missing. It is believed that this missing part contains the information which I am seeking.

He does appear on the 1860-61
Hastings Co. directory as do his sons
Charles E., James S., William S. and

I wrote to three newspapers and only heard from the Intelligencer. They told me that their papers for the years of the 1860's were being microfilmed and were not available.

Mr. Crause is to check into this soon.

You mentioned the 1871 census. He has checked this one and has found no member of the Turnbull family mentioned, although they were there at the time.

I have no account of the Campbells which you mentioned except that they were given a house on Charlotte St. as a gift from Charlotte T. Campbell's father, John Turnbull - in about 1855.

Most of my information has been gleaned from the records of the Hastings Museum - first by Mrs. Sargent, then Mrs. Blumpton and more recently Mr. Dravin.

I would appreciate any information which you might have in the hopes of putting together some of the missing pieces.

Robert Henry. John appears also with his sons, with the exception of Charles E., on the 1864-65 directory. Charles is believed to have passed away sometime in 1864 prior to the census taking.

May I say at this point, that Charles Edward was the elder son of John and Charlotte Everett Burnell. Charles E. in turn was the father of four children, the eldest being Robert John Burnell - my husband's maternal grandfather.

It was through such things as church records of birth or burial that I had hoped to find some information as to the background of John Burnell. Due to an early request for land in 1823, Mr. Burnell is listed as a native from Edinburgh, Scotland. If the census record of 1861 is judged to be correct, it lists his age as 67 - meaning he must have been born in Scotland around 1794 and is believed to have come to Canada about 1821. He married in July 1821 in Kingston. He died in Belleville on Jan. 25, 1869.

I had hoped to find some record of burial which might list relatives such as brothers or sisters or parents, plus something of where he may have

These are the items which I am most interested in:

- 1- birth date of Charles E. - listed on 1861 census as age 32
- 2- death date of same ↑
- 3- marriage record of Charles E. and Emily J. (1861 census) (age 30) - last name unknown
- 4- death date of Charlotte Everett J. - listed as alive in John J.'s will of 1862 - but May 1864 codicil is declared
- 5- date of birth of Robert John Turnbull, son of Charles E. + Emily J. His death certificate is known to be incorrect in Monroe, North Carolina (U.S.A.). His birth was listed as 1871. There were 3 sisters also, Emily, Charlotte and Helen
- 6- burial records of John Turnbull and wife Charlotte - assumed to be in Belleville.

Thank you for your help!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Carl M. Stapleton

would the death or burial dates of either of the two churches have been recorded anywhere other than the church for safe keeping.

I have been told, by Mrs. Plungston who before her death was the curator of the Museum of Belleville, that the graveyard beside St. Andrew's Church is now paved over and is a tennis court and parking lot. Where would the graves have been moved and where might the records be found?

I would appreciate any information which you might have access to and will be most happy to pay for your time.

Thanks you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Carl Stapleton

P.S. Charles Edward Turnbull was the Clerk of the 6th Div. Court of Hastings County on Jan. 6, 1864 but by Feb. 6, 1864 he is listed in his father's will as the late Charles E. signifying his death. He isn't listed on 1864 census.

Letter to Len 21 Apr 71

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

For the past four years, I've been searching for genealogical information concerning a Mr. John Lumbull who lived in Belleville from approximately 1819 until his death on January 25, 1869. He was married July 20, 1821 at St. George Church in Kingston to Charlotte Everett, daughter of John and Mercy Everett, of Kingston.

The Lumbulls spent their lives in Belleville from the date of their marriage until their deaths. The death of Mrs. Lumbull is believed to have taken place between January 24, 1859 (the date of her husband's first will) and the date of the taking of the census for Belleville in 1861 (her husband is listed as widower).
no Lumbull in Belleville in 1904

The date of the death of Mr. Rusbull is known to have been January 25, 1869.

The Rusbulls raised four sons and three daughters:

- ✓ Charles Edward Rusbull
- ✓ William Steele "
- ✓ James Steele "
- Robert Henry "
- Charlotte Eliza " (Campbell)
- Helen Maria " (Bell)
- Matilda Jane " Thomson

It is known (Hastings' Museum) that John Rusbull is listed as a trustee on the grant (deed) from the Government for the one acre of ground for the founding of the Church of Scotland, St. Andrew's, in Belleville in 1829.

Would there be anything in your archives pertaining to death, marriage or birth of the children of John Rusbull and would you possibly have a death or burial record of John and Charlotte E. Rusbull?

One of the children, Charlotte Eliza, married Alfred Angyle Campbell, the son of the 1st minister to St. James Church in Belleville. Knowing nothing of the burial customs of those times,
